EAST ASPEN

Aspen has become one of the leading luxury mountain resort towns, its ethereal magnetic energy dazzling the world's elite for over three decades. The town's remote location is deep in frontier country, nearly 8,000 feet in altitude and nestled between the Rockies' Sawatch and Elk mountain ranges. The town's extensive winter recreation options, from cross-country skiing to hot air ballooning, are the perfect complement to a blossoming culinary and après-ski dining scene.
