CASA MIA

TRANCOSO, TRANCOSO

Casa Mia is an outstanding jungle luxury residence perfected in the art of tropical luxury living. This serene rural residence offers otherworldly serenity and lush resort-like grounds, the proximity to the pulsating heart of Trancoso. The dazzling UNESCO recognized heritage square, Quadrado, and the region's most enchanting sands are positioned within a ten-minute walk of the estate. A putter's dream guests may indulge in the unique golf links of Terravista, lauded as South America's most beautiful, replete with awe-inspiring clifftop views over the Atlantic.

Comprised of three living pavilions, Casa Mia posits a bold indoor-outdoor luxury living philosophy, beautifully interfacing with its divine natural surroundings. Astounding interiors feature a delectable blend of contemporary chic sophistication and amazonian exoticism. Soaring contemporary dimensions are garnished with a galaxy of exotic woods and enchanting timber grains imparting a delectable pared-down organicism to the space. Concrete plaster floor, slab accents, and built-in seating impart a brutalist inflection to the cavernous main pavilion that melds effortlessly with the primal aboriginal decor. Free-flowing open-concept interiors blend the living, dining, and kitchen areas seamlessly, creating the ultimate laidback ambiance for intimate get-togethers or lavish entertaining. Casa Mia offers five exceptional ensuite bedrooms accomodating up to ten guests in utmost comfort, discretion, and luxury. Versatile lodging options are configured with one master suite, two junior suites, and two standard suites.

Casa Mia is immersed in a technicolor garden of delights brimming with lush jungle vegetation and dense rainforests. Perfectly suited for total reconnection with the elements, a 66-foot infinity pool garnished with black stones offers the ultimate respite from the afternoon heat. Far more than a luxury retreat, Casa Mia is proof that the road less taken is often the most rewarding, offering an unforgettable rural Brazil getaway.

TRANCOSO

In the Brazilian state of Bahia, the idyllic coastal town of Trancoso offers visitors a reprieve from the ordinary. Set against the crystal-clear waters of the Atlantic, this little slice of paradise is a captivating blend of natural beauty, rustic allure, and luxurious living. In the 1970s, Trancoso began attracting many hippies, who coexisted peacefully with the local fishermen. Together, they enjoyed the unspoiled charm of the area – from the pristine beaches to the lush central square of the town. While its residents have opened their tropical haven up to the world, they also preserved the area's natural simplicity that renders it so unique. You won't find grand resorts, Michelin-starred eateries, bustling nightlife, luxury shopping districts, or scenic marinas here. Instead, the appeal lies in its unadorned beauty, which has drawn an impressive array of visitors, including Naomi Campbell, Leonardo DiCaprio, Beyoncé, and chic Brazilian high-flyers. Local property owners, craftsmen, and fishermen have all worked together to protect their secluded paradise, constructing intimate houses and boutique accommodations and maintaining a modest array of restaurants and cafes. With large hotel chains and tourists seeking a more polished experience having left the beaches and town square unspoiled, Trancoso remains an exquisite oasis of unrivaled beauty.
