LEEWARD, TURKS AND CAICOS

Villa Saving Grace is a spectacular beachfront residence peering into the purest expression of Turks and Caicos' coastal beauty. This stunning colonial-styled Villa is embraced by lush vegetation and tropical foliage, delineating an idyllic oasis a stone's throw from one of the world's top beaches. An incomparable perch on a sunset-facing cove offers otherworldly quiet and enchanting beauty sure to dazzle the most weathered luxury adventurer.

Contemporary chic elegance and quintessential seaswept romanticism merge with exquisite results in fresh and invigorating interiors. Crisp lines and vertices sculpt lustrous free-flowing spaces punctuated by floor-to-ceiling glass and oversized windows. A wealth of French doors sustain a breezy, quintessentially Caribbean pace of living, while whitewashed walls refract the midday sun gloriously, accounting for an ethereal mid-day glow. Finely lacquered exotic woods are on full display, with elite furnishings complimenting subtle sandy gradients throughout the home. Villa Saving Grace is well-appointed with tasteful black-and-white photography and evocative maritime-themed artworks accounting for an airy vacation-friendly ambiance conducive to the most rejuvenating retreats. A lovely eight-seat dining table pivots gracefully onto the fantastic outdoor amenities, effectively pairing fine dining experiences with heady tropical fragrance and unobstructed sea views. This stunning retreat offers five bedrooms and three and a half bathrooms that may accommodate eight adults and four children in total comfort.

Idyllic exteriors include a 40' heated pool embraced by Brazilian hardwood decking. Palm-framed pathways lead to romantic seating beneath the palms and the soft sands of Grace Bay. LEEWARD

Turks and Caicos are a British Overseas Territory made up of eight major islands and dozens of smaller cays in the tropical Atlantic, southeast of the Bahamas. Known for its turquoise waters and powder-soft sand, the archipelago is home to some of the best beaches in the world. On Providenciales—locally known as Provo—you'll find Grace Bay Beach, upscale restaurants, and luxury boutiques. At the same time, Grand Turk offers world-class wall diving and glimpses into the island's colonial past.
