CENTER, VERBIER

Chalet 1936 is lauded as one of the most spectacular properties of Verbier, perched a five-minute stroll from the dazzling village center. Perfectly poised at the edge of the Verbier plateau, this estate commands stratospheric mountain and valley views that never cease to inspire. A striking distillation of the full majesty of the Swiss Alps reveals itself before guests at this Chalet.

Spectacular interiors are informed by the majesty of its surroundings, presenting a lovely fusion of cosmopolitan elegance and mountain chalet romanticism. A modern free-flowing floor plan curates a dramatic sense of lateral space, with gorgeous floor-to-ceiling windows offering a fascinating backdrop for stunning domestic scenes. Framing these vistas are exquisite wood framing, timber paneled sides, and exposed beams curating an exceptionally inviting rustic ambiance. Tufted rugs, ultra-plush sofas, and supple leather sectionals meet the gorgeous organic textures. A stunning fireplace and rustic stone accent wall set the scene for fantastic apres-ski or snowed-in moments with loved ones, a hot drink in hand. The gorgeous gourmet kitchen infuses cosmopolitan refinement with provincial charm, while internal sliding glass doors and vibrant artwork define the exceptionally modular space. Spanning five floors and over 10000 sq. ft of immaculate living space, the utmost comfort and rejuvenation are assured to all fourteen guests. Chalet 1936 is equipped with an in-home wellness center complete with a gym, hammam, indoor heated pool, and lavish spa-inspired ensuites. Top-notch amenities include a games room and cocktail bar beckoning social spontaneity and bonding for all age groups.

Outside, guests may be tempted by the steaming cedar hot tub, enveloped in stunning panoramas and embraced by crisp mountain air. South-facing balconies ensure guests don't miss a moment of the dazzling nightly light show before the soaring jagged Alpine peaks. A glorious mountain refuge awaits with Chalet 1936, leaving none impervious to its charms.

CENTER

Verbier tops the list of Switzerland's must-visit mountain resorts, between its spellbinding nature, raucous apres culture, and legendary off-piste skiing for the weathered athlete. This picturesque Village in the Valais Canton, smattered with traditional South-facing lodges, is defined by a tenacious and youthful spirit. A wide selection of intermediate slopes and a vibrant restaurant scene attract the most daring athletes and discerning gourmands. From Michelin-starred restos to traditional lodges, urbane sun decks, and cocktail bars, this small Swiss Village offers a punch that is anything but. Gear up for an adventure or bask in the vitamin D-drenched majesty of the Swiss Alps, Verbier offers an unmatched playground for personally tailored luxury experiences.
